

Department of Green Energy and Environment Resource Course Plan
(for 2019 and afterward enrolled students)

Mission and Goals		The mission of the Green Energy and Environmental Resources Department is to serve as a source of expertise and to focus on the professional skills and personal development of students. We are committed to interdisciplinary and international development of students.
Core abilities		We expect students to possess core abilities of: 1) professional knowledges and skills; 2) problem solving skills; 3) literacy of responsibility and ethics; 4) management of time and resources; and 5) relational thinking and stress management.
Course Structure		Classification	Required Courses	Ratio	Instructors	Note
	School Required	Common Required	0	0/128
		Language Required	10	10/128
		General Education Required	16	16/128		Ethics of Environment is classified as department required
	Department Required	Basic Science required	22	22/128	Department Instructors:7 School Adjunct Instructors :0 Adjunct Instructors :0
		Professional Required	24	24/128	Department Instructors:7 School Adjunct Instructors :0 Adjunct Instructors :0
		Elected Courses	56	56/128	Department Instructors:7 School Adjunct Instructors :0 Adjunct Instructors :7
	Credits for Graduation		128			