

Mission and Goals

Department of Green Energy and Environment Resource

The mission of the Green Energy and Environmental Resources

Department is to serve as a source of expertise and to focus on the professional skills and personal development of students.

We are committed to interdisciplinary and international development of students.