

CJCU Honorary Doctoral Degree Conferral Regulation

12-26-1992 Adopted by the Academic Affairs Meeting
01-02-2003 Adopted by the Administrative Affairs Meeting
01-16-2003 Adopted by the University Affairs Meeting
04-17-2003 Adopted by the Board of Directors Meeting
06-24-2004 Amended and Adopted by the Board of Directors Meeting
01-19-2006 Amended and Adopted by the Board of Directors Meeting
01-10-2007 Amended and Adopted by the 2006 First Semester End University Affairs Meeting
02-08-2007 Amended and Adopted by the Board of Directors Meeting
03-18-2014 Amended and Adopted by the 2014 Second Semester Start University Affairs Meeting
03-26-2015 Amended and Adopted by the Board of Directors Meeting

Article 1: Chang Jung Christian University (hereafter "the School") has established this Honorary Doctoral Degree Conferral Regulation (hereafter "the Regulation") to honor people with outstanding academic, cultural, or social group achievements or contributions pursuant to the Degree Conferral Law promulgated by the Ministry of Education.

Article 2: Any domestic or foreign personnel with any of the following conditions may be an honorary doctoral degree conferral candidate:

1. Special academic or professional achievements or contributions that can benefit mankind.
2. Major contributions to cultural or academic exchanges or world peace.
3. Special or major contributions to this School.

Article 3: Honorary doctoral degree candidates shall be recommended in writing by the Dean of the doctoral program for the School, the Board of Directors, or the Presbyterian Church in Taiwan to the President of the University.

The recommendation shall specify the name, gender, date of birth, nationality, education background, experiences, title of degree to be conferred, and the conditions specified by Article 2 of this Regulation for the candidate in detail.

Article 4: The School's honorary doctoral degree candidates shall be handled according to the following procedures:

1. The School shall establish an "Honorary Doctoral Degree Audit Committee." Said audit committee shall be chaired by the President with two Board of Director representatives (one of which shall be an impartial person of society) plus five to seven people comprised of the Dean of Academic Affairs, Dean of Research and Development, Chief Secretary, Dean of Colleges, the institute or department directors of the doctoral programs, and professor representatives designated by the President.

The audit committee meeting shall convene with at least two-thirds of its members present, and a resolution shall be adopted when approved by at least two-thirds of the members in the meeting.

2. After the honorary doctoral degree qualification has passed the audit; the recommendation, audit meeting records, and the relevant information of the doctoral degree conferral candidate shall be reported to the Board of Directors of the School for review; and the conferral may commence after the documents have been submitted to the Ministry of Education for the record.

Article 5: Should an honorary doctoral degree receiver be involved in any actions that have major damaged the reputation of the School, the Honorary Doctoral Degree Audit Committee shall review whether to revoke the honorary doctoral degree. The result shall be reported to the Board of Directors of the School for review and approval, and the documents should submit to the Ministry of Education for the record.

Article 6: The graduation gown, certificate format, and the conferral ceremony for the honorary doctoral candidate shall be separately established.

Article 7: In principle, the honorary doctorate degree award ceremony shall be held in collaboration with the School's graduation ceremony.

Article 8: This Regulation is adopted by the University Affairs Meeting, submitted to the Board of Directors for the record, promulgated for implementation by the President and the same shall apply to its amendments.