Things to note:

- (1) According to the provisions of Article 19 of the Organizational Regulations of the University, changes in the purpose of the society, amendments to the articles of association, dissolution, and disposal of property shall require the presence of two-thirds of the members and the consent of two-thirds of the members present. If each association has other regulations that are stricter than the preceding paragraph, those regulations shall prevail. Changes in the purpose of the association must be approved by the instructor and submitted to the group for approval 30 days before the meeting, before they can be put on the agenda of the members' meeting for voting.
- (2) The application for the suspension of operation of the society shall be limited to one academic year (from August 1 of the current year to July 31 of the following year; taking the 113 school year as an example, it will be 113/8/1-114/7/31), and the membership of the society shall be retained within the approved period.
- (3) Clubs that apply to cease operations must apply for resumption within fifteen days of the official start of the new school year. If the club fails to apply for reinstatement for more than one academic year, the registration of the club will be cancelled.
