Terms and Conditions

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Our full Terms and Conditions of Admission are available on our website www.rgu.ac.uk/policies

1.2 The Terms and Conditions of Admission describe to applicants holding an offer of a place to study at RGU, the principal rights, duties and obligations of both the applicant (hereafter "you") and Robert Gordon University (hereafter "the University") prior to enrolling on a course of study.

1.3 By accepting the offer of a place you accept these terms and conditions, and together with the policies and regulations detailed below they form the contract between you and the University (hereafter "the Contract").

2. KEY FACTS

Whilst the University strongly advise you to refer to and read our full terms and condition we would like to make you aware of the following key points:

2.1 You must ensure that all information supplied to the University for entry to a programme of study, for professional, statutory and/or regulatory body entry or for immigration purposes is true, accurate and complete. Applications found to include false, incomplete or misleading information may be withdrawn by the University or the offer amended.

2.2 If the University suspects that an application is fraudulent, it will contact you asking for an explanation. If it is confirmed that the application is fraudulent, and an inadequate explanation or no response is received from you then the University will cancel the application.

2.3 You must declare any previous study at Robert Gordon University, whether failed or incomplete as well as qualifications awarded. Failure to declare prior study may lead to your application being withdrawn. If, during the application process we become aware that you have already exhausted all permitted attempts at a module or course, the University may cancel your application.

2.4 If we are unable to offer you a place for any reason, such as you do not meet the entry requirements for your chosen course, and if the course has a pathway with the International College at Robert Gordon University (ICRGU) we will pass on your application for their consideration. You may request we do not do this by email to Admissions@rgu.ac.uk
