Article I. The Regulations are formulated to encourage outstanding overseas students to apply for admission and complete their studies at the University, and encourage and assist overseas students in their life in Taiwan, thereby promoting the internationalization of the University.

Article II. The “overseas students” referred to in the Regulations are foreign students and overseas Chinese students (including Hong Kong and Macao students, but excluding Mainland students) who meet the requirements of the Ministry of Education's regulations for overseas student status.

Article III. Requirements for enrolled students are as follow:

1. Eligibility for enrolled students:
 - (1) The Ph.D Program is not included.
 - (2) The student from the program or department teaching in English which started after 2020 is not included.
 - (3) Enrolled overseas students who have completed one semester of study and fulfilled the required credit hours for full time students at the University in the previous semester.
2. Requirements for enrolled students: Academic grades in the previous semester must be in the top 20% of the class or above, and conduct in the previous semester must be 80 points or more, with no records of disciplinary action.
3. Any foreign student who is a recipient of the Taiwan Scholarship from either the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) or the Ministry of Education (MOE), or who has been granted any other scholarship from within this institution, is not eligible for this particular scholarship concurrently.

Article IV. Requirements for Exchange student and Dual Degree Program students:

1. Exchange student: During the period of overseas exchange, the application will be suspended, and the application qualification will be resumed in the semester after the exchange ends.
2. Dual Degree Program students: The application requirements for the first semester after studying in a twin school are based on the performance of the semester before going abroad, and the application is limited to one semester after going abroad.

Article V. The scholarship amount and review shall be based on the following principles:

1. Those who meet the eligibility and conditions shall receive a subsidy of NT $ 25,000 per semester. In principle, the tuition and miscellaneous fees will be directly deducted. If the tuition and miscellaneous fees are less than 25,000 yuan, the actual amount will be deducted.
2. The award period is as follows:
 - (1) Maximum of seven semesters for undergraduate scholarships.
 - (2) Maximum of three semesters for master's scholarships.
3. Scholarship applications shall be submitted to the Office of Global Engagement. The Office of Global Engagement shall convene a review committee to review student documents required by this Regulations, and approve scholarships accordingly. Scholarships shall be distributed in accordance with the principles of this Regulations.
4. Scholarships shall be approved on a per semester basis, and application shall be submitted for review in each subsequent semester.

Article VI. Application Method and Deadline:

1. The application process shall be administered in conformity with the schedule announced by the Office of Global Engagement for each respective semester.
2. Download application form from the Office of Global Engagement website.

Article VII. Submit the following documents for scholarship application:

1. Scholarship Application Form.
2. Photocopies of documents, including one copy each of student ID, residence permit and bank book (please attach to the back of the application form).
3. Original copy of University transcripts.

Article VIII. The scholarship quota for each academic year shall be adjusted according to the University budget.

Article IX. From the date of withdrawal or transfer, students who have received a scholarship shall lose all subsequent entitlements to such financial aid under this program and are obligated to reimburse the institution for any scholarship funds disbursed for the term in question.

Furthermore, students granted a leave of absence must similarly return any scholarship funds allocated for their absence. Scholarship eligibility may be reinstated upon the students' return and formal re-enrollment in the institution.

Article X. Scholarship students found to have forged or provided false information shall have their scholarship qualification revoked and dealt with in accordance with relevant laws and regulations.

Article XI. The Regulations are implemented upon approval by the Scholarship, Grant and Work Study Review Committee, and subsequent approval by the University President; the same shall apply to amendments.
