Required credits 68

Elective credits 60

Total 128

The maximum elective credits from other departments that can be counted is 15

1. Students must select a language other than Japanese for their "Foreign Language (basic)" and "Foreign Language (Intermediate)" courses.

2. Students must complete a minimum of 128 credits (including General Compulsory, Language Compulsory, General Education Compulsory, and the Department's Professional Compulsory/Elective courses).

A maximum of 15 credits from "Electives offered by other departments" may be recognized. If elective credits are insufficient, students may take other free electives to make up the difference. The recognition of credits from other departments is subject to relevant university regulations.

3. Courses marked with "■" in the remarks column indicate that students must take one course in each of the four General Education domains: "Devotion," "Love," "Care," and "Action."

4. Graduation Thresholds:

(1) Japanese Proficiency: Please refer to the "Implementation Guidelines for Japanese Proficiency and Achievement Assessment" of the Department of Applied Japanese.

(2) Practical Ability: Please refer to the "Guidelines for Student Professional Practical Competency Assessment Department of Applied Japanese.

(3) English Proficiency: Please refer to the thresholds announced by the Language Education Center.

(4) Information Technology Proficiency: Please refer to the "Implementation Regulations for Student Information Competency Assessment" announced by Computer & Network Center.

5. Students enrolled in the 2024 academic year are required to complete one interdisciplinary Micro Credit Program as a graduation requirement.

★ Note: "Professional Elective Modules" and "Interdisciplinary Credit Programs" are not graduation requirements. However, if a student completes any set of these modules or programs, a note of completion may be added to their degree certificate.
